

Rocket® Standalone Glass Capillary Tube Discontinuation

Dear Customer,

Due to falling demand and in line with our previous communication to discontinue glass capillaries by the end of the year (Rocket Medical Customer Information Bulletin, July, 2018), we have now taken the decision to discontinue standalone glass capillaries with immediate effect. We sincerely apologise for any inconvenience that this may cause.

The following product codes are affected:

Stock code	Description
R57014	Glass Heparinised Tube Angled
R57015	Glass Heparinised Tube Straight
R60549	Glass Heparinised Tube Angled with Mouth Suction Tubes

Glass capillaries remain available as part of our FBS procedure pack range on a temporary basis. As a reminder, all products containing glass capillaries are scheduled for discontinuation by the end of 2020.
