Discontinuation of Spares for Water Trap Sets

Rocket Medical has previously supplied a range of spares for water trap sets used on the Rocket Medical Craft Suction and Craft DUOVAC Oocyte Pumps (R29655, R29654, R29660 and R29661). Following a review, and due to limited sales, these products will be discontinued with immediate effect. We apologise for any inconvenience caused.

Items to be discontinued:

Ordering Code	Description
R28406	Glass Collection Bottle
R28408	Bung for Trap Bottle
R28410	Angled Tubing Mount
R28135	Silicone Tubing—5mm ID
R29658	Spare Luer Lock Tubing Adaptor

Customers who have previously purchased these items should now purchase the Rocket® water trap set. In the interests of infection control, this is designed for single use and should be replaced after each patient.
