

Discontinuation of Uterine Aspiration Portfolio

Dear Customer,

Following a review, we have taken the decision to discontinue our Uterine Aspiration product range.

Stock remains available for purchase until approximately 21st May 2021 based on the current rate of sale. Customers who wish to make an unscheduled final order should do this before the end of April. Any such orders will be accepted subject to the availability of sufficient existing raw materials.

We sincerely apologise for any inconvenience that this may cause. Please be aware of alternative suppliers of similar devices such as Purple Surgical and Fairmount Surgical Products.

The following product codes will be discontinued:
